

midem news

4

Wednesday 27 January 2010

MIDEMNET ACADEMY

Your chance to be a Hero

ion/
rd's
don
ung

up
aid.

S
st at
and ts to o in-

ACT founder Sigggi Loch (right) with Magnum Coltrane Price (left), bass player and producer on Nils Landgren's new album Funk For Life, Dan Serman of Medicines Sans Frontieres, and ACT's biggest selling performer Nils Landgren. Loch is holding a cheque for €25,000, part of the proceeds from sales of Funk For Life. Landgren is donating €1 from every CD sold to Medicines Sans Frontieres

Haj
every year
Middendorp are the speakers (Audi K, 10.00-11.00). Next is a workshop with a panel of experts including Creativeman's Layli Odamura, JVC's Aya Ohi, Label Gate's Nobuhiro Sato and Haji Taniguchi from Avex, who will share their tips for breaking the Japan market (Audi K, 11.00-12.00).

value copyright properly, and a range of national and EC investment measures for companies, Impala announced at MIDEM yesterday. IMPALA's Helen Smith said: "This is a call for action, not huge gap with the big clubs. Second, to reward them for their investment in discovering and developing talent. It's a perfect model for music." IMPALA also looked at other sectors, including film production where effective

IMPALA's Helen Smith

peer music
The Global Independent

We take care
of success

WWW.PEERMUSIC.COM

DAVID FOSTER MULTI-GRAMMY AWARDS, COMPOSER & PRODUCER